

Nuggetty Land Protection Group

invites you to an afternoon celebrating the history of our area with the unveiling of a plaque marking the site of the Porcupine Flat School and

the launch of "A History of Seventeen Central Victoria Schools" followed by afternoon tea at 'Crown Hill'

Sunday 14 October 2018, 2.30-4.30 pm

'Crown Hill', 186 Three Chain Road, Walmer, 3463

Vicroads RACV Country Directory: 44 C9; latitude 36.9604, longitude 144.1175

Parking available in Three Chain Road and at 'Crown Hill' - enter via the shearing shed gate

Disabled parking also available

Plaque unveiling at the adjacent Porcupine Flat School site

Book launch to follow at 'Crown Hill'

Enquiries: Jane Mitchell on 0457 729 132 or jemitch517@gmail.com or

Sue Barnett on 0417 368990 or sba56183@bigpond.net.au

Those attending will have the opportunity to purchase a copy of

"A History of Seventeen Central Victoria Schools:

Baringhup, Baringhup East, Baringhup West, Bradford, Brokenback, Eastville, Gowar, Muckleford, Muckleford South, Neereman, Nuggetty, Porcupine Flat, Shelbourne, Shelbourne South, Tarrengower, Walmer, Walmer North"

by Ken James and Sue Barnett.

Please email Sue if you would like to reserve a copy of the book as it has a limited print run.